

Stone Work Archives – Terms & Conditions and Privacy Policy

Last Updated: 12/14/2025

1. Binding Agreement and Acceptance of Terms

By accessing, browsing, or using the Stone Work Archives website (the “Site”), you affirm that you have read, understood, and agreed to be legally bound by these Terms and Conditions, all applicable laws, and any additional guidelines posted on the Site. If you do not agree, you must immediately discontinue use.

2. Mission and Purpose

The Stone Work Archives exists to preserve, curate, and protect historical, genealogical, architectural, and cultural materials associated with the Stone family, the Stone Home, and related regions. All rights not expressly granted are reserved. Nothing herein grants ownership, license, easement, or future interest in any property, archive, narrative, or intellectual asset. The site is intended for educational, historical, and preservation purposes only.

3. Nonprofit Status

The Stone Work Archives may operate as, or transition into, a nonprofit organization under Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code. No use of this site shall be construed as creating donor rights, beneficiary interests, fiduciary obligations, agency relationships, or equitable interests beyond those expressly required by law.

4. Intellectual Property Rights

All content on the Site, in any form, whether published or unpublished – including but not limited to text, images, photographs, videos, audio, oral histories, documents, genealogies, names, phrases, architectural references, geographic identifiers, metadata, compilations, and archival materials – is owned exclusively by Stone Work Archives or its licensors and is protected by copyright, trademark, and intellectual property laws under U.S. and international laws.

5. License and Permitted Use

Users are granted a limited, revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to access and use the Site for personal, educational, or non-commercial research purposes only. Any other use requires prior written authorization from Stone Work Archives. Attribution must be provided and copyright notices retained.

6. Prohibited Uses & Conduct

Prohibited uses and conduct includes, without limitation: commercial exploitation; reproduction or redistribution; AI or machine learning training; scraping or harvesting data; creation of derivative works; misrepresentation of identity or lineage; defamatory use; or use that infringes privacy, publicity, or moral rights.

7. Copyright Enforcement and Remedies

Stone Work Archives actively enforces its intellectual property rights. Unauthorized use may result in immediate takedown demands, termination of access, DMCA notices, civil litigation, injunctive relief, statutory damages, recovery of attorneys' fees, and any other remedies available under law or equity.

8. Use of Names, Regions, and Historical References

Personal names, family histories, geographic references, and cultural phrases are included solely for historical documentation. Unauthorized use, misrepresentation, or exploitation is strictly prohibited.

9. Submissions and Contributor Content

By submitting content, contributors affirm ownership or rights and grant Stone Work Archives a perpetual, royalty-free, worldwide license to archive, display, and preserve submissions. To the extent permitted by law, contributors waive any moral rights or similar claims.

10. Privacy Policy

The site collects limited personal data for operational, archival, and historical integrity purposes. Data may be retained for historical integrity, legal compliance, and organizational operations. Stone Works Archives does not sell personal data.

11. AD Accessibility Statement

Stone Works Archives is committed to providing a website that is accessible to the widest possible audience, regardless of technology or ability. We endeavor to conform to WCAG 2.1 Level AA standards. If you experience difficulty accessing content, please contact us so we may provide reasonable accommodations where feasible.

12. Data Security

While reasonable safeguards are employed, Stone Work Archives disclaims any warranty that the Site will be uninterrupted, error-free, or immune from unauthorized access. Use is at the User's sole risk.

13. Historical Accuracy Disclaimer

Historical materials may reflect the language, perspectives, or inaccuracies of their time. Stone Work Archives makes no representations or warranties as to accuracy, completeness, or suitability for any purpose.

14. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Stone Work Archives shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, consequential, special, punitive, or exemplary damages arising from Site use or reliance on content.

15. Indemnification

Users agree to indemnify and hold harmless Stone Work Archives, its directors, officers, contributors, and affiliates from any claims, losses, liabilities, damages, or expenses arising from User conduct or violation of these Terms.

16. Termination of Access

Stone Work Archives reserves the unrestricted right to suspend or terminate access at any time, without notice, for any violations or perceived risk.

17. Governing Law

These terms shall be governed by the laws of the State of Georgia, without regard to conflict-of-law principles.

18. Severability and Survival

If any provision is deemed unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force. Provisions concerning intellectual property, liability, indemnification, and governing law shall survive termination.

19. Changes to Terms

Terms may be updated at any time and are effective upon posting.
